

Wear undergarments similar to what you will wear on your wedding day.

Tie a string around your natural waistline. = ★

Ensure that you use a standard soft measuring tape, and confirm that it starts with full inch at the end, and is not broken.

Be sure to hold the tape in the correct direction starting from 0" while measuring. Do not pull the tape too tightly.

■ = Center top shoulder, this is where you naturally have a shoulder seam on a t-shirt.

● = Bust point, center of your bust or nipple line.

★ = Natural waist, tie a string around your natural waistline, this is the small waist, where a high waisted skirt would sit naturally.

● = Belly button/high hip line

▲ = Top shoulder point; this is measured on top of the shoulder bone, which is where the armhole seam on a well fitted t-shirt would sit, not the outer shoulder.

1. Above bust full circumference =
2. Center bust circumference at fullest part ● =
3. Under bust, bra band
4. Natural waist circumference ★ =
5. Belly Button, high hip circumference =
6. Bicep at widest circumference =
7. Forearm at widest circumference =
8. Wrist circumference =
9. Top shoulder point to wrist ▲ =
10. Center top shoulder to bust point ■ ● =
11. Bust point to natural waist ● ★ =
11 B. Bust point to desired length for top to end (mark this measurement if you would like the bodice to end higher or lower than your natural waist =
12. Top shoulder point to shoulder point across front ▲ =
13. Top shoulder point to shoulder point across back ▲ =
14. Center top shoulder down to back waist ■ ★ =
15. Hip at widest circumference =
16. Natural waist line ★ down to floor standing up straight & looking ahead =